

Splendour of Champagne

Rosedale on Robson
838 Hamilton Street, Vancouver
Thursday 27th March 2008 at 6.30pm

Located around the cities of Reims and Epernay is one of those very special areas of France – Champagne country.

This evening we will be visiting various Champagne Houses from this region and as a comparison trying two Champagne style sparkling wines made by French producers in California.

The event will be a tutored tasting led by the infamous Champagne aficionado, Sid Cross. In addition, we will have Matthieu Heidsieck, of the great Champagne family and now AWSM National Brand Manager for Louis Roederer talking about their represented wines.

LES CHAMPAGNES:

The Champagnes will be taken from the Chevaliers Cellar, so enjoy them on the evening because you won't find them at the LDB or your local independent wine shop. Below are the wines we will be pouring, including two different Champagnes from the fabulous 1990 vintage. We know that James Bond would definitely approve of the Bollinger:

Reception: Lanson Brut Rosé

*Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin
Pol Roger White Foil Réserve
Philipponat Royal Réserve
Bollinger Grand Année 1990
Louis Roederer Brut Premier
Moët et Chandon Brut Impérial 1990*

*Plus for comparison : Domaine Chandon - Blanc de Noirs
Domaine Chandon - Brut Cuvée*
